❖ Understanding Your Health Information

Each time you visit Dr. Leslie Yedor, DAOM, L.Ac. a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains a description of your symptoms, medical history, examination and test results, diagnosis, treatments, and a plan for future care. This information, referred to as your medical record, serves as a:

- o Basis for planning your care and treatment.
- o Means of communication among the health professionals who contribute to your care.
- o Legal documents of the care you receive.
- o Means by which you or a third-party payer (e.g. health insurance company) can verify that services you received were appropriately billed.
- o A data source for medical research and public health.
- o A source of data for planning facilities, marketing healthcare services and fundraising.
- o A tool with which we can assess and work to improve the care we provide.

Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to ensure its accuracy; better understand how others may access and use your health information; and make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosures to others.

❖ Your Health Information Rights

You have the following rights related to your medical and billing records kept by Dr. Leslie Yedor, DAOM, L.Ac.:

- o Obtain a copy of this notice. You will receive a copy of this notice at your first visit after its publication. Thereafter you may request a copy of this notice or any revisions from Dr. Leslie Yedor, DAOM, L.Ac. or by calling (719) 445-8405.
- o Authorization to use your health information. Before we use or disclose your health information, other than as described below, we will obtain your written authorization, which you may revoke at any time to stop future use or disclosure.
- o Access to your health information. You may request a copy of your health information that Yedor Acupuncture keeps in your medical or billing record. Your request must be submitted in writing. We may charge for the cost of providing you access and for your copies.

- o Amend your health information. If you believe that the information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete you may request that we correct or add information. Your request must be in writing and you may request a form for this purpose by calling (719) 445-8405.
- o Request confidential communications. You may request that when we communicate with you about your health information, we do so in a specific way (e.g. at a certain mail address or phone number.) We will make every reasonable effort to agree to your request.
- o Limit our use or disclosure of your health information. You may request in writing that we restrict the use or disclosure of your health information for treatment, payment, health care operations, or any other purpose except when specifically authorized by you, when we are required by law, or in an emergency situation in order to treat you. We will consider your request and respond, but we are not legally required to agree if we believe your request would interfere with our ability to treat you or collect payment for our services.
- o Accounting of disclosures. You may request a list of disclosures of your health information that we have made for reasons other than treatment, payment or health care operations. Disclosures that we make with your authorization will not be listed. We will provide one list per year free of charge, but will charge for subsequent lists in the same year.

❖ Our Responsibilities

We are required by law to protect the privacy of your health information, establish policies and procedures that govern the behavior of our workforce and business associates, provide this notice about our privacy practices, and abide by the terms of this notice.

We reserve the right to change our policies and procedures for protecting health information. When we make a significant change in how we use or disclose your health information, we will also change this notice. The new notice will be posted in the clinic and will be available.
